

HOLE-Y BODY

Words & Music:
Emily Aronoff Teck
Hebrew: Morning liturgy

Sweetly $\text{♩} = 69$

VERSE 1

G Am D G

Our ears hear, mouth makes sound, our hands clap, can spin a-round. Our nose can smell, our eyes can see. I thank God for mak-ing you and me.

G Am D G

VERSE 2

C G Am D

Our shoul-ders shrug, el-bows bend, our fin-gers wave, help to make friends. Our neck can stretch when we nod. We love our bod-y;

G G Am D

G VERSE 3 C G Am

thank You, God. Our hips can sway, tum-my can tick-le, our legs can stretch, toes can wig-gle. Each day dis-cov-er what our bod-y can do.

D G G Am

D G VERSE 4 C G

I thank God for mak-ing me and you. The bod-y is great, with man - y parts that work to - geth - er 'cuz the bod - y is smart. Wat - er,

29

Am D G

32

G Am D G

food, and air go out and in with the holes we use, then we start a - gain.

VERSE 5 C G Am D G

36

A - sher ya - tzar et ha - a - dam b'choch - mah, u -

G Am D G G C G

41

va - ra vo n' - ka-vim n' - ka-vim cha-lu - lim cha-lu-lim.